

CV of Professor Pier Virgilio Dastoli

Pier Virgilio Dastoli is born in Anzio (Rome) May 12, 1949.

He is graduate in Law in the University of Rome (1971).

He was researcher in the Istituto Affari Internazionali (1972-1976).

He was parliamentary assistant of Altiero Spinelli in the Italian Parliament (1976-1979) and in the European Parliament (1976-1986).

He was principal adviser of the European Commissioner Carlo Ripa di Meana (1986-1988).

He was official in the European Parliament (1988-2003).

He was Head of the European Commission Representation in Rome (2003-2009).

He was principal adviser of the European Commission and member of the Spinelli Group' steering committee in the European Parliament composed by prominent European leaders.

He was teacher in the Universities of Macerata, Perugia, Bari, and Rome in the framework of the Jean Monnet Programme.

He is renewed Professor in the University "Dante Alighieri" (Reggio Calabria) and in the Master on "Political Management" in the Mediterranean University (Reggio Calabria).

He is engaged in the many cultural and social movements as well as the European Movement (he was general secretary of the International European Movement from 1995 to 2002 and he is president of the Italian Council) and the Permanent Forum of Civil Society (he was spokesman from 1995 to 2003).

He is Chairman of the Scientific Committee of the Italian Association COMPUBBLICA.

He is associate member of the Club of Venice and of the Group of Experts on Public Communication of OECD.

He is author of many books and articles on European Affairs.

He is lawyer and journalist.

He speaks fluently English, French, and German.